

ALIA National 2020 Conference Grant

Health Libraries Inc (HLi) acknowledges the important role professional development plays in the progress and ongoing viability of our profession. To assist our members to participate in such activities HLi is offering one $2000 grant for a HLi member to attend the ALIA National 2020 Conference. The funds may be put toward any aspect of attending the conference including registration fees, accommodation and travel¹. The grant recipient will be required to prepare and present a paper at the 2020 HLi Conference to share key topics from the conference with HLi members. Non-members are encouraged to apply provided they take out HLi membership should their application be successful.

Applications for the grant close at midnight on 9 March 2020. The recipient will be announced shortly thereafter.

I am currently a member of HLi, or I am willing to become a member should my application be successful: <https://hlinc.org.au/memberships> My membership number is:

I have attached a brief CV and a 200-300 word outline of my reason for applying for the grant and how my attendance at the ALIA National 2020 Conference will benefit me professionally.

I understand that I am required to present a paper relating to my attendance at ALIA 2020 at the annual HLi conference on 16 October 2020.
